

AKC Educational B-OC Match

Tualatin Kennel Club, Dog Fanciers Association of Oregon with many local specialty clubs offer the latest in AKC Dog education.

*Saturday, June 16, 2007
Washington County Fairgrounds
Hillsboro, Oregon [across from the airport]
$5.00 entry fee [no charge unless dog competes]*

*Classes: Puppies 3 months and up,
Rare breeds and Veterans*

All Registration: 0900-1200

Obedience starts at 10:30

Conformation starts at 1:00

What is an AKC Educational Match? A venue to educate and encourage new pure bred conformation, obedience, agility and rally dog owners about grooming, show etiquette, where to find information, handling, junior handling, learn about health issues, and learn about your breed and the clubs that support them.

Examples of Educational events that will take place. More to come. This is our short list.

- ❖ Obedience demonstrations and run-throughs.
- ❖ Samoyed sled demo.
- ❖ Sheriff department K-9 unit will be there to work!
- ❖ OSU College of Veterinary Medicine.
- ❖ Specialty club information tables with dogs.
- ❖ Grooming demonstrations
- ❖ Handling for beginners and juniors.
- ❖ Food Concessions
- ❖ Photographers
- ❖ Friends

Fun for the whole family

If your specialty club is interested in participating and supporting our match, please contact Ame Vandehey at 503-642-7976 or vandehey5@msn.com For questions regarding entering the match with your dog, please contact Mary Strom at snowwind@earthlink.net General question contact Linda Bell at gldnfan@teleport.com or 503-625-5536 For up to date changes in the match information, please view entire web page listed: www.tualatinkc.org or www.dogfanciersassociationoforegon.org